NASWF INSTRUCTION 11101.15C

Subj: COMMUNITY RENTAL OR SALE PROPERTY ADVERTISEMENTS

Ref: (a) OPNAVINST 11101.21D
(b) NAVFAC P-930

1. Purpose. To monitor the advertising of off-base housing properties within the NAS Whiting Field complex as required by references (a) and (b). This instruction has been completely revised and should be read in its entirety.

2. Cancellation. NASWF 11101.15B

3. Background. The Housing Referral Services Office will assist in ensuring that only non-discriminatory advertisements of housing properties are posted upon bulletin boards or published in media under control of or circulated within the Command.

4. Action. All advertisements of sales or rentals of housing, including vacant land upon which a home may be sited or constructed, must be approved by the Housing Referral Services Office at 570 Merrill Drive, prior to posting on station bulletin boards, publishing in the "Whiting Tower" or through any other means of advertisement at this activity. Department Heads, Staff Assistants and Commanding Officers of tenant commands are requested to take appropriate action to ensure approval is accomplished prior to permitting the posting of housing-related advertisements. The Public Affairs Officer will monitor advertisements in the "Whiting Tower" for similar compliance.
